With your printer chosen,
select Printer Properties.

Congratulations, you have used Finishing features.

The image shows two white Sharp multifunction copiers, the MX-B376W and MX-B476W, standing in a modern office environment. The copiers are tall, white, and feature multiple paper trays at the bottom. The MX-B476W on the right is slightly larger and has a more prominent control panel with a color touchscreen. In the background, a man in a suit is standing and talking to two women seated at a conference table. The Sharp logo and 'mv' trademark are visible in the top right corner of the image.
